In numbers

The Dongria Kondh's struggle to save their mountain

| 6,000,000,000 | Anil Agarwal's personal wealth (US$) |
|---------------|--|
| 100,000,000 | Money lost by Vedanta because mining has not begun (US$) |
| 77,700,000 | Metric tonnes of bauxite in Niyamgiri |
| 42,714,259 | Value of Vedanta shares sold in protest over Niyamgiri mine (US$) |
| 600,000 | People who have watched Survival's film on the Dongria's struggle |
| 121,337 | Trees to be felled if mining goes ahead |
| 10,000 | Letters written to the Indian government supporting the Dongria Kondh |
| 7,953 | Dongria Kondh population |
| 721 | Hectares of land leased by Vedanta for the Niyamgiri mine |
| 104 | Dongria Kondh villages in Niyamgiri |
| 103 | Majhi Kondh families already moved to make way for the refinery at the base of the hills |
| 7 | Years since Vedanta (through a subsidiary) and the Odisha government agreed to mine Niyamgiri together |
| 1 | Mountain at the heart of it all |