Background

On March 1, 2023, Commerce published the notice of initiation of the fourth sunset review of the AD order on honey from China¹ pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Act).²

On March 15, 2023, the American Honey Producers Association and the Sioux Honey Association (collectively, the domestic interested parties) notified Commerce of their intent to participate within the 15-day period specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(1)(i).³ The domestic interested parties claimed interested party status under sections 771(9)(C) and (E) of the Act as producers of domestic like product in the United States and as a trade association whose members are engaged in the business of producing honey in the United States.

On March 30, 2023, Commerce received an adequate substantive response to the Initiation Notice with respect to the Order from the domestic interested parties within the 30-day period specified in 19 CFR 351.218(d)(3)(i).⁴ Commerce did not receive a substantive response from any other interested parties with respect to the Order covered by this sunset review. On April 20, 2023, Commerce notified the U.S. International Trade Commission that it did not receive an adequate substantive response from respondent interested parties in this sunset review.⁵ Pursuant to section 751(c)(3)(B) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.218(e)(1)(ii)(C)(2), Commerce conducted an expedited (120-day) sunset review of the Order.

Analysis of Comments Received

A complete discussion of all issues raised in this sunset review is provided in the accompanying Issues and Decision Memorandum. Final Results of Sunset Review

Pursuant to sections 751(c)(1) and 752(c)(1) and (3) of the Act, Commerce determines that revocation of the Order would likely lead to a continuation or recurrence of dumping and that the magnitude of the dumping margins likely to prevail would be weighted-average margins up to 183.80 percent.

This notice serves as the only reminder to parties subject to an administrative protective order (APO) of their responsibility concerning the return/destruction or conversion to judicial protective order of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.305. Timely notification of the return or destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested.
