

Supplementary Figure 1 Coomassie blue stained gel run in duplicate with that used for Western blotting. Total cell proteins were separated in a 10% polyacrylamide gel together with molecular mass standards and then stained with Coomassie brilliant blue to ensure similar quantities of proteins were loaded into each lane for Western blot analysis. M: positions of broad range protein markers (PageRuler Prestained Protein Ladder, Thermo Scientific).