

PANTHER

Caleb Nieman

Men's basketball to play Louisville and South Carolina

Kentucky Wesleyan will play Louisville and South Carolina in exhibition competition to open the Panthers' 101st year of basketball for the 2010-11 season. The Panthers will play Louisville in their new downtown KFC Yum Center (22,000) on Thursday, Nov. 11. KWC will compete against South Carolina for the third straight exhibition season on Thursday, Nov. 4, at the Colonial Life Arena (18,000) in Columbia, SC. Game times and ticket information will be announced at a later date.

Women's basketball to play Kentucky

The Panthers will travel to Lexington on Sunday, Nov. 7, to play the University of Kentucky in an exhibition contest. Game time and ticket information will be announced at a later date.

All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honorees

Baseball - Luke Garmon (second team); Jordan White (third team). Basketball - Desmond Stephens (first team); Chris Williams (third team) and Andree' Wilson (third team). Men's Soccer - Ryan Samuels (second team). Women's Soccer - Kristen Chinn (second team). Softball - Leah Emmerick (third team).

All-Great Lakes Football Conference selections

David James, Defensive Player of the Year. First team selections - DaMarcus Ganaway, Chuck Palonis, Ben Wilson and Khalid Harris. Second team - Vincent Lalonde, Thomas Gordon, Jay Fallin, Richard Fangman, Jason Fairley, Jabbar Harris, Ken Stoklosa, Sam Bland and Sean Maguire. Honorable mention - Derek Brown, Levi Ray, Jon Hale, Robbie Piper, Kevin Baldwin, Greg Embers, Heath Smith, Ganaway and Eric Mayfield. All-Academic team - Dean Dimitropoulos, Chris Owen, Wilson and Anthony Woodruff.

New coaches

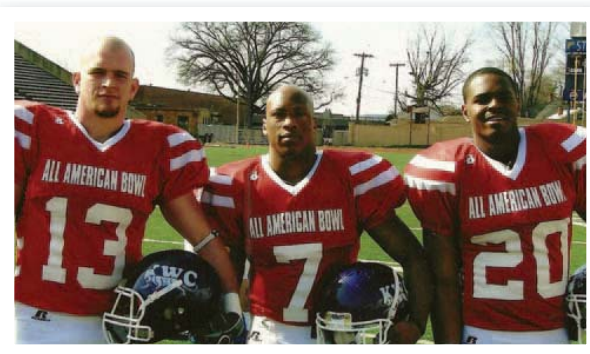

Caleb and Nicole Nieman, assistant women's basketball coaches at KWC, were promoted to co-head coaches. Scott Ray, a former all-conference performer at Western Kentucky University, has been chosen as head men's golf coach. Craig Brown is the new head volleyball coach.

Desmond Stephens named All-American

Senior guard Desmond Stephens received honorable mention All-American recognition by Division II Bulletin. He also received first team All-Great Lakes Valley Conference honors and selection to the All-Midwest Region squad by the National Association of Basketball Coaches and Daktronics Sports. Stephens also played in the NABC/NCAA Division II All-Star Game on March 26 in Springfield, Mass.

Nicole Nieman

Ben Wilson, Chad Smith and Amore' Winters selected to Collegiate All-Star game

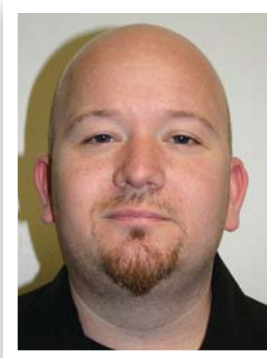

Linebacker Chad Smith, defensive end Ben Wilson and defensive back Amore' Winters played in the 14th annual All-American Bowl College All-Star game for Division II and III seniors in March in Charleston, W.Va.

Todd Lee named Midwest Region Coach of the Year

Head men's basketball coach Todd Lee produced his finest season in his fifth year at KWC. The 29-5 record was the most wins in his tenure and the eighth best in school history. The team finished No. 5 in the final NABC Top 25 poll. He led the Panthers to a GLVC

Scott Ray

Craig Brown

TRACKS

best record 16-2 to win the regular season title. KWC started the season with a loss before reeling off 16 straight victories to set the seventh longest winning streak in Panther history and the best in his five seasons.

Online Panther Store on new Kentucky Wesleyan athletic website

Kentucky Wesleyan fans world-wide can now shop for exclusive Panther athletic team-branded apparel, accessories and gifts on the newly launched Official Online Panther Store at www.kwcpanthers.com.

The new store features over 150 items in 13 different sports (baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, volleyball) for men, women and children, including the commemorative “Celebrating 100 years of KWC Basketball” items. The Panther Store is hosted by the All-American Club, the official booster club for KWC’s 13-sport program.

Student-athletes achieve high academic success for the fifth straight year

Kentucky Wesleyan College student-athletes continue to achieve higher academic success for the fifth consecutive year. Ten of the 13 sports produced cumulative grade point averages of 2.8 or above with eight teams above a 3.0 for the 2009-10 academic year.

The women’s golf team attained a team cumulative GPA of 3.51, which is the highest earned for all Panther athletic teams. The men’s golf team was second with a 3.48. During the spring semester, the football team recorded the highest increase from the fall semester, followed by baseball, men’s golf, men’s cross country and both soccer squads.

- 127 of 248 student-athletes (51.2%) attained a GPA of 3.0 or higher, including 17 with a perfect 4.0.
- 54 student-athletes were named to the Spring Dean’s List (3.5+) and 17 to the President’s List (4.0).
- KWC student-athletes collectively posted a cumulative GPA of 2.91. The College’s overall student average was 2.9.

- 49 student-athletes were named to the 2010 Great Lakes Valley Conference All-Academic Team for maintaining a 3.30 cumulative GPA.
- 29 were named to the 2009-10 Who’s Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

“I am very proud of our student-athletes’ success in the classroom this year,” said Gary Gallup, KWC Director of Athletics. “Our student-athletes have a true understanding of the importance of education. The coaches and staff have done a great job of reinforcing that message to them daily.”

Sixty-three student-athletes earn degrees

For the second straight year, 63 Kentucky Wesleyan College student-athletes in 13 sports received their bachelor degrees during the school’s 142nd annual Commencement. The student-athletes represent 35.2 percent of the 179-member graduating class. Overall, 14 student-athletes graduated with honors, including four summa cum laude (3.9 to 4.0 GPA) and four magna cum laude (3.7 to 3.8 GPA).

Class of 2010 student-athletes

Kentucky Wesleyan's

100th Year Basketball

A once-in-a-lifetime historical event, Kentucky Wesleyan College's 100th Year Basketball Anniversary Celebration Gala Weekend took place on Friday, May 21, and Saturday, May 22. The festivities honored men and women players, coaches, managers, trainers, cheerleaders, athletic staff, media, fans and friends from the Winchester and Owensboro campuses (1907-2010).

Almost 1,000 KWC fans voted for an All-Century Team, All-Winchester Era Team and All-Decade Teams from the 1950s through the 2000s. Members of those teams were honored during the 100th Gala dinner and dance on Saturday evening.

All-Century Team

Gary Auten (1959-62)
J.B. Brown (1985-88)
Bill Carlyle (1961-62)
Kelly Coleman (1958-60)
Patrick Critchelow (1996-99)
Corey Crowder (1988-91)
Willis Cheaney (1992-95)
Rod Drake (1981-84)
John Duncan (1968-71)
Lorico Duncan (2000-01)
Antonio Garcia (1998-99)
Ray Harper (1984-85)
Dwight Higgs (1981-84)
Tom Hobgood (1966-69)
LeRoy John (1999-00)
Vincent Mitchell (1988-91)
Dick O'Neill (1966-69)
Marlon Parmer (2003)
Joe Roop (1953-56)
Mike Redd (1964)
Sam Smith (1966-67)
Sam Smith (1986-87)
Dallas Thornton (1965-68)
George Tinsley (1966-69)
Dana Williams (1998-99)
Mike Williams (1972-73)

Robert "Bullet" Wilson (1928-31)
Fairce Woods (1946-49)
John Worth (1986-87)
Bobby Zuerner (2000, 2002-04)

All-Winchester Team

Winchester Campus Era
Kendall Bocard (1930-31)
Austin Denton (1931-32)
Asa House (1925-27)
Alex Kertis (1930-32)
Bruce Strother (1927-29)

All-Decade Teams

1950s
Bill Bibb (1955-57)
Norman Christopher (1949-52)
Mason Cope (1956-57)
Logan Gipe (1955-57)
Bill Harrell (1950-52)

1960s
Eugene Smith (1968-71)
Roger Cordell (1964-67)
Martin Holland (1959-60)
Jim Smith (1968-71)
Charlie Taylor (1964-65)

1970s

James Greene (1971-73)
Willie Johnson (1974-76)
Jyronna Ralston (1973-74)
Steve Walker (1973-74)
Roger Zornes (1972-73)

1980s

Dave Bennett (1985-86)
Bunky Lewis (1978-81)
Larry Patrick (1977-80)
Andra Whitlow (1984-87)
Ray Zuberer (1980-83)

1990s

Steve Divine (1990-93)
LeRoy Ellis (1989-90)
Tim Griffin (1988-90)
Alex Kreps (1992)
Junebug Rakes (1988-90)

2000s

Tyrus Boswell (2002)
Ronald Evans (2001-02)
Jeff Fahnbulleh (2007-08)
Chris Landry (2001-02)
Anwar Perry (1998-01)

Several members of the All-Century and All-Decade teams gather for a group photo at the Gala Dinner at the Hines Center. Front row (left to right): Chris Landry, Anwar Perry, Dick O'Neill, Bill Carlyle, Norman Christopher, George Tinsley, Joe Roop, Dallas Thornton and Rod Drake. Back row (left to right): Victor Redd (son of the late Mike Redd), Ray Harper, Mike Williams, Tyrus Boswell, Leroy John, Ray Zuberer, Eugene Smith, Tom Hobgood, Bobby Zuerner, Patrick Critchelow and Steve Divine.

Anniversary Celebration Gala

Voice of the Panthers Joel Utley with All-Americans Joe Roop and George Tinsley and former Head Coach Bob Daniels reminisce before the Golf Scramble at the Owensboro Country Club on Friday afternoon.

Former Panthers Steve Winkler and Tommy Richardson watch their former head coach Wayne Chapman chip in a birdie.

Bill Boling along with Allen, Bill and Shane Wilson celebrate a victorious putt. Allen and Bill are sons of the late player and Coach Robert 'Bullet' Wilson, and Shane is his grandson.

Longtime Panther fan Nan Rowe admires the 100-year memorabilia and Dallas Thornton's Globetrotter jersey at the Fan Fest on Friday night at the Woodward Health and Recreation Center.

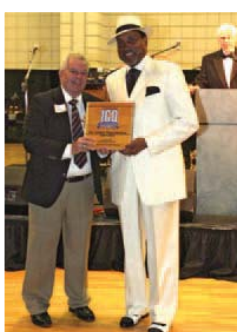

KWC's first four-time all-conference honoree Norman Christopher and former Panther Allen Wilson relive old times at the Winchester and Owensboro campuses.

Joe Roop introduces former cheerleader Seretha Summers Tinsley and All-American Gary Auten.

Former players, managers, coaches and cheerleaders gather for a group photo after the Legends Games.

Director of Athletics Gary Gallup presents All-American George Tinsley his All-Century Team plaque (a piece of the original Owensboro Sportscenter floor). Tinsley was the leading vote-getter by the fans in selecting the All-Century Team.

Gary Gallup presents Victor Redd, son of the late Mike Redd, his father's plaque as a member of the All-Century Team. Victor flew in from San Jose, Calif., to celebrate his father's KWC years.

Former Panthers Mary Czarnecki Howard and Academic All-American Dr. Jill Burness Stowe compete in the Women's Legends Game on Ray Harper Court in Jones Gymnasium on Saturday afternoon.

The White Team watches the action and shares a laugh. Seated (l-r) are Mike Pollio, Wayne Chapman, Leroy John, Anwar Perry, Shaun Logsdon, Melvin Beasley, Travis Powell and Marshall Sanders.

Around the

Cupola

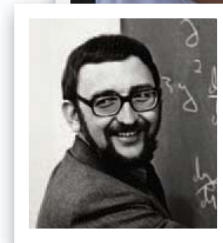

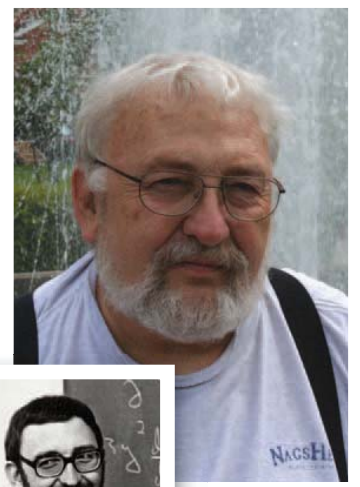

Rightmyer Retires after 44 Years of Service

Rebecca Rightmyer began her job in the KWC library as a fresh-out-of-high school 18-year old in 1966. Her KWC career also included stints as director of annual giving and director of alumni affairs. Library information desk supervisor for the last 14 years, she says she loved being a part of the process of helping fragile freshmen eventually become confident seniors. Well-known and appreciated for her positive energy and helpful nature, a recent student described Rightmyer's reputation with these words: "Rebecca rocks."

Chelgren Retires after 40 Years of Service

Dr. Kirby Chelgren arrived at KWC in 1970 and retired in June as professor of mathematics.

Chelgren has brought his love for mathematics to the classroom for 40 years. Appreciating the correlation between mathematics and music, he shares his love for music through participation in his church choir and the Owensboro Symphony Chorus. Dr. Chelgren will continue to teach part-time at KWC.

Hiatt Conducts Genetics Research

Associate Professor Dr. Evelyn Hiatt, Department of Biology, spent the summer working with maize genetics and honing her techniques in cytogenetics and molecular biology at the University of Georgia, Athens. Her work was funded by a National Science Foundation grant awarded to Dr. Kelly Dawe of UGA to study the molecular mechanisms of chromosome arm motility and measure its affect on chromosome transmission. The grant will fund the research of two KWC students at UGA in the summer of 2011.

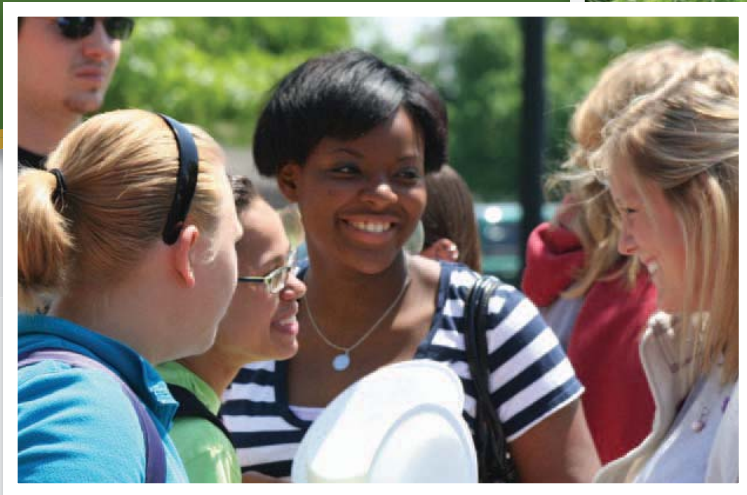

Laughrey to Publish Orchestral Works

Assistant Professor of Music and Director of Bands Gary Laughrey will have two original orchestral works published by Imagine Music Publishing of New York City. "Etude, Brute?" and "Selah for Strings" are scheduled for release in early 2011.

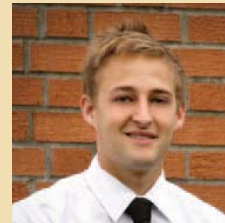

The campus community celebrated the arrival of spring with the Off the Sidewalk series throughout April, featuring great food, music and sunshine.

2010 Oak and Ivy Recipients

New members of the Order of Oak and Ivy were inducted at the annual banquet, a Wesleyan tradition since 1955.

John Grieb

Callie Hayden

Morgan Whitney

Brad Johnson

Jennifer Settle

Carissa Wethington

Emily King

Ben Wilson

All in the Family

Dr. Douglas Wilson '83 with his sons, Ben Wilson '10 and Matt Wilson, a pre-med student at KWC.

Dr. Wilson is an ophthalmologist in Columbus, Ind. Ben will enter the Indiana University School of Medicine in the fall.

Psych Bowl Team Advances to Semifinals for Second Straight Year

The KWC Psych Bowl Team defeated Georgetown College with a solid win in the quarterfinals of the Kentucky Psychological Association's Spring Academic Conference, advancing to the semifinals for the second straight year. Dr. Lynette Taylor is the team coach, and Dr. Bernie Bettinelli is the department chair. The event is the nation's largest academic psychological conference sponsored by a state psychological association. KWC lost to eventual winner Bellarmine University.

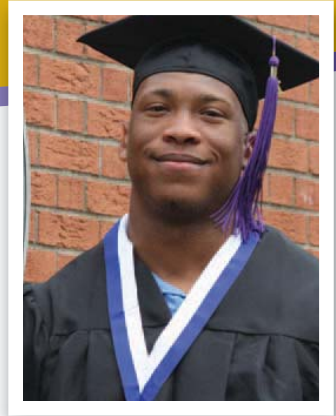

Left to right: Dr. Lynette Taylor, Amanda Rogers '10, Jessica Cecil '10, Gerrimy Keiffer '10, Auburn Mynhier '10, Dr. Bernie Bettinelli

Largest Class in 40 Years

Congratulations

Kentucky Wesleyan College sent 179 graduates, the largest class in 40 years, from tradition-rich Hocker-Hall Grove with Congressman Brett Guthrie's challenge to "find your place and make it better."

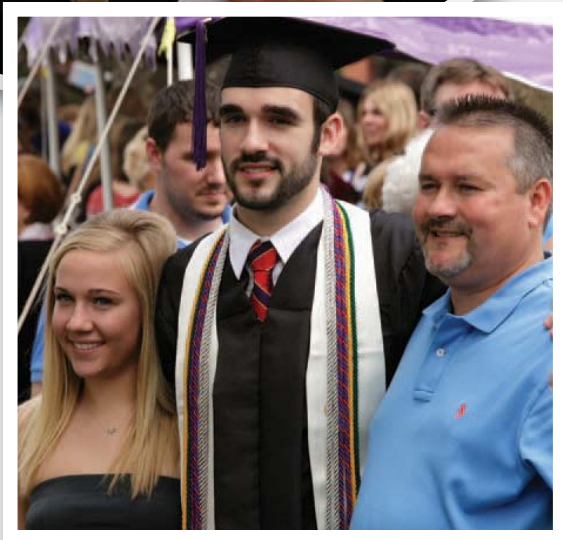

"A life of giving and service to others," remarked President Cheryl King, "is the essence of a liberal arts, faith-based education. The good deeds of the Class of 2010 in their years at KWC certainly exemplify these qualities."

KWC conferred three honorary degrees. U.S. Congressman Brett Guthrie, who represents Kentucky's Second Congressional District, received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree before addressing the graduating class.

George Tinsley '69 and Seretha Tinsley '71 of Winter Haven, Florida received honorary Doctor of Humanities degrees. George Tinsley is Chief Executive Officer of Pengeo, Inc., Tinsley Group, Inc., and Tinsley Family Concessions, and Seretha Tinsley is Chief Financial Officer of the three companies.

The graduation ceremony was the 142nd commencement since the college's founding in Millersburg in 1858.

— Class of 2010

