NFL FLEXIBLE SCHEDULING

In 2006, the NFL implemented a primetime "flexible scheduling" element for Sundays between Weeks 10-15 and Week 17, and in 2014, that was extended to games between Weeks 5-17. It allows surprise teams to play their way into a primetime game and provides the best matchups for Sunday Night Football on NBC.

Only two games may be flexed into Sunday Night between Week 5-10, and only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game will be moved to an afternoon start time. Flexible scheduling does not apply to games airing on Thursday, Saturday or Monday nights. Twelve days before each game – or as few as six days in week 17 – the league will announce its Sunday night games. The Cardinals have won all three games in which they have been flexed into Sunday Night Football.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Acquired in a trade with the Miami Dolphins during the 2019 season, running back Kenyan Drake wasted little time making an impact both on and off the field in Arizona.

Two days after a four-touchdown performance against the Browns, Drake delivered stuffed toy dogs to children in the pediatric units at Phoenix Children's Hospital with the Cardinals Women's Club, front office personnel and several teammates as part of the team's annual "Paw Express" event to celebrate the holiday season.

About one month after arriving in Arizona, Drake celebrated a birthday party in the Kids Zone at Phoenix Children's Hospital with teammates, the Cardinals Women's Club, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders. Each month, PCH holds a party for all patients with a birthday that month, and the Cardinals Women's Club sponsored the November birthday party.

In the week preceding Super Bowl LIV after the 2019 season, Drake returned to Miami where he joined former Cardinals kicker Jay Feely to participate in a beach cleanup event hosted by Ocean Conservancy. The season-long program helped remove and divert 54 tons of plastic and trash from Florida's coasts and waterways.

His philanthropic efforts continued into the offseason when he participated in #PayItForwardLIVE, a weekly livestream starring celebrities and athletes to support small, local businesses during the coronavirus pandemic.

In 2018, after Hurricane Michael devastated Florida and his home state of Georgia, Drake helped organize disaster relief efforts by collecting items such as bottled water, non-perishable food, toiletries and first aid kits for those impacted.

While growing up in the Atlanta area, Drake often participated in after school programs hosted by Boys and Girls Clubs, and now, he regularly visits local Boys and Girls Clubs to mentor children. During the 2017 season, Drake was named the Week 16 NFLPA Community MVP for providing a night of holiday food and fun for 125 kids at a Boys and Girls Club in Broward County, FL.

As a Smile Train ambassador, Drake visited Mexico in 2018 and Brazil in 2019 to help create new smiles for children with untreated clefts in the developing world. He also hosted the second annual Smile Train Family Fun Day to raise awareness and funds for the program.

For the past few seasons, he has worn custom-designed cleats in support of the Boys and Girls Club and Smile Train as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign.

POSTSEASON PERFORMER

During the 2008 postseason, WR Larry Fitzgerald had the most prolific playoff run of any wide receiver in NFL history. He shattered NFL records for receiving yards in a single postseason (546), receptions (30) and TDs (7). Fitzgerald recorded four 100-yard games in the postseason as well, a new NFL record for consecutive games with 100-yards receiving.

In Arizona's Divisional matchup vs. Green Bay in 2015, Fitzgerald looked just as dominant. He caught eight passes for 176 yards and scored the game-winning TD in the Cardinals OT victory over the Packers. His 176 receiving yards set a new franchise postseason record. Fitzgerald surpassed his own franchise record of 166 yards at Carolina (1/10/09) in the 2008 Divisional round.

Fitzgerald is the only player in NFL history to average at least 100+ receiving yards and a TD in every game played in the postseason. Fitzgerald has more receiving yards (942) than any player in NFL history through his first nine career postseason games.

THRILLING THE HOME FANS

Fitzgerald has been thrilling fans at State Farm Stadium since the venue opened in 2006. He has played 110 career regular season games in 14 seasons at State Farm Stadium after playing his first two NFL seasons (2004-05) at Sun Devil Stadium.

In those contests, he has totaled 638 receptions. In NFL history, only WR Jerry Rice had more receptions in a single stadium. Fitzgerald is just nine catches shy of passing Rice for the most catches in a single venue.

NOT EVERYTHING WAS NEW IN 2019

From the head coach (Kliff Kingsbury) to the QB (Kyler Murray) and a mid-season addition at RB (Kenyan Drake) – there were a lot of new faces in the Cardinals offense last season.

However, as he had been the 15 seasons prior, WR Larry Fitzgerald was a constant in Arizona's offense. Fitzgerald finished the 2019 season with a team-high 804 receiving yards. It marked the 13th time in 16 seasons Fitzgerald led the Cardinals in receiving yards. He led the team in receiving each of the last five seasons (2015-19).

In NFL history, only Jerry Rice (15 times) led his team in receiving yards more times than Fitzgerald has led Arizona.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Cardinals linebacker Dennis Gardeck is a special teams standout, earning Pro Bowl alternate honors last season, and already a mainstay in the Valley community, rarely missing an opportunity to participate in school trips, kids camps and hospital visits. His improbable path to the NFL brought him to Arizona in 2018, and since then, he has supported his community with the same passion he brings to the field.

Gardeck has delivered stuffed toy dogs to children in the pediatric units throughout Phoenix Children’s Hospital the past two Decembers as part of the team’s annual “Paw Express” event to help spread holiday cheer. He has also participated in team’s “Feed the Hungry” program at the Phoenix Rescue Mission the last two years, joining team owner Michael Bidwill and Cardinals teammates to serve Thanksgiving dinner to the less fortunate.

He has displayed consistent support and appreciation for military veterans throughout his community service. During the 2019 offseason, he took part in “Operation Sleep,” a military appreciation event hosted by Cardinals Charities and Brooklyn Bedding at MANA (Marines, Army, Navy and Air Force) House in Phoenix. He and team representatives delivered 76 beds to the residents of MANA House, a peer-support organization that helps rebuild the lives of military veterans affected by homelessness.

Gardeck returned to MANA House during the Cardinals bye week last season to spend time with the residents during a canvas painting event. While staying at MANA House, veterans build savings with the goal of moving out on their own.

He joined teammates and Cardinals Cheerleaders to host and honor eight active servicewomen with a day of pampering and dinner provided by Ocean 44 as part of the USO Salute to Service Dinner in December of 2019. Later that month, Gardeck and teammates joined Cardinals Cheerleaders and team mascot Big Red for the Pro vs. GI Joe program at the team’s facility. In conjunction with the Joint Forces Initiative, the program had players and military personnel, home and abroad, playing video games and communicating through a webcam on Xbox Live.

He joined Nicole Bidwill, Big Red, Cardinals Cheerleaders and teammates in December of 2018 for the team’s annual “Light the House” party hosted by the Cardinals Women’s Club to help spread holiday cheer at the Ronald McDonald House. Last November, he returned to the Ronald McDonald House with Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders for a “Feed the Families” event hosted by the Cardinals Women’s Club.

Along with teammates, the Cardinals Women’s Club, Big Red and Cardinals Cheerleaders, Gardeck celebrated a birthday party in the Kids Zone at Phoenix Children’s Hospital in November 2019. Each month, PCH holds a party for all patients with a birthday that month, and the Cardinals Women’s Club sponsored the November birthday party.

That same month Gardeck joined several teammates to show off their culinary skills during “A Night Out with the Arizona Cardinals” at Sakana Sushi & Grill in Phoenix, an annual event that honors cancer survivors. As part of the NFL’s “My Cause, My Cleats” campaign, Gardeck’s customized cleats supported the American Cancer Society each of the last two seasons.

He has been a regular participant in the team’s “Milk and Cookies” program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley to promote literacy by reading to children. He also takes part in team kids camps, helping to promote the NFL’s “Play 60” campaign to encourage kids get at least 60 minutes of exercise every day.

In 110 career games, Hopkins has eclipsed the 100-yard receiving mark 30 times, which ranks third among NFL players since 2013 and eighth among active NFL players.

In 2019, he posted five 100-yard performances, tied for the AFC lead and tied for fourth in the league.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since entering the NFL in 2013, WR DeAndre Hopkins has served as a tireless advocate for those in need and has participated in a host of events to support local communities – from his hometown in Central, SC to Houston and now in the Valley.

It didn't take long for the All-Pro wideout to make a significant impact in Arizona. On March 27, 2020 – just a week after being acquired by the Cardinals – Hopkins announced a $150,000 donation to the Arizona Coronavirus Relief Fund, which was established to provide financial support to multiple organizations dealing with the impact of COVID-19. Money raised by Arizona Relief Fund helped purchase Personal Protective Equipment for medical personnel working with the coronavirus patients; support non-profits that aid the most vulnerable such as food banks, homeless shelters and domestic violence facilities; and provide technology for disadvantaged students needed for online learning.

Having experienced firsthand its devastating effects while growing up in South Carolina, Hopkins has used his platform as an NFL star to serve as an advocate for the victims of domestic violence.

Much of Hopkins' advocacy is done through the nonprofit SMOOOTH (Speaking Mentally, Outwardly Opening Opportunities Toward Healing) Foundation, established by his mother, Sabrina Greenlee, in 2013. Left blind by a 2002 incident of domestic violence, Greenlee started SMOOOTH in order to assist survivors of domestic violence. In addition to providing financial assistance to the foundation, Hopkins also spends time meeting with women his mother mentors and speaking to high school students about his past experiences.

During his time in Houston, Hopkins was a consistent presence at community events with the Texans, making visits to the Texas Children's Hospital to deliver teddy bears, joining teammate J.J. Watt for the J.J. Watt Charity Softball Classic, taking part in the Texans Champions of Youth Dinner at Steak 48, hosting numerous visits with children through the Make-A-Wish Foundation and working closely with the Boys & Girls Club.

In January of 2019, Hopkins donated his $29,000 game check from the Texans Wild Card matchup to the family of Jazmine Barnes, a seven-year-old girl who was killed in a drive-by shooting in Houston. Hopkins' donation covered the funeral costs and helped bring the perpetrator to justice. In August, Hopkins purchased new football helmets and chinstraps for all the kids playing for youth football teams in his hometown of Central.

Hopkins joined former teammate Andre Johnson in 2018 to host a special holiday evening for the Madge Bush Transitional Living Center. The pair handed out gifts, interacted with fans and hosted dinner at the Living Center, a charity that provides housing for up to 24 months to sufferers of homelessness or domestic violence, with a focus on single mothers and their children.

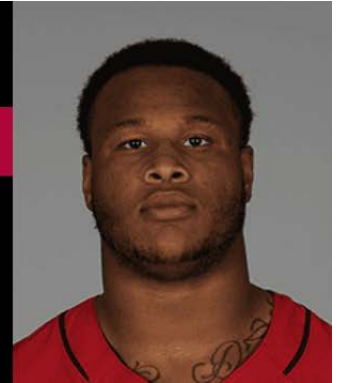

Pairing his on-field performance with his charitable giving in 2016, Hopkins donated $1,000 for every TD scored during the month of October to AVDA-Aid, a charity that assists the victims of domestic violence.

In 2015, Hopkins teamed up with former Daniel (SC) High School and Clemson University teammate Jarvis Jenkins to host the DeAndre Hopkins & Jarvis Jenkins Football Camp. Free for children ages 6-18, the event was held in their hometown of Central and featured football drills and team-building activities. That was the first in a series of summer camps hosted by Hopkins during his time in the NFL.

In 2014, Hopkins took part in the Texans Care initiative, serving as the spokesman for the Houston Food Bank and Souper Bowl of Caring. Through the initiative, he raised awareness for hunger relief through volunteer activities and nutrition education. Hopkins also visited the Food Bank to meet with children and families and spoke at events to raise awareness for the issue.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Arizona native and former Chandler H.S. quarterback Brett Hundley joined the Cardinals during the 2019 offseason. After leaving his hometown for college at UCLA and then the NFL with Green Bay and Seattle, Hundley wanted to give back to the community where he was raised.

He has done that through a combination of team community events and his foundation. Hundley and his sister, Paris, established the Hundley Foundation in 2019 to improve the lives of children and families in need by supporting initiatives that focus on health, wellness and education.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Hundley Foundation donated more than 2,000 meals to Phoenix Children's Hospital, allowing their team of nurses and physicians to continue healing, serving and caring for their patients. The foundation made a similar contribution to the Detroit Police Department, providing hundreds of meals to law enforcement officers on the front lines of the public health crisis.

Since 2011, Hundley has been involved with many charitable organizations and fundraisers in the fight against epilepsy, a cause close to his heart. He was inspired to fight epilepsy and find a cure to help Paris, who battles the disorder. Brett first became involved through the Epilepsy Foundation of Greater Los Angeles' "END epilepsy" campaign during his time in college at UCLA and has since teamed with the foundation to become a National Ambassador for the Athletes vs Epilepsy Initiative. As part of the NFL's "My Cause, My Cleats" campaign, Hundley's customized cleats supported the Epilepsy Foundation partnering with the Athletes vs. Epilepsy program.

He has volunteered at countless team community events, including taking part in the annual "Paw Express" event last December. Hundley delivered stuffed toy dogs to children in the pediatric unit at Phoenix Children's Hospital with the Cardinals Women's Club, front office personnel and several teammates to help spread holiday cheer. Hundley has been a regular participant in the team's "Milk and Cookies" program, visiting elementary schools throughout the Valley to promote literacy by reading to children. He also takes part in team kids camps, helping to promote the NFL's "Play 60" campaign to encourage kids get at least 60 minutes of exercise every day.

CARDINALS HAVE LONG HISTORY WITH INTERNATIONAL GAMES

In February, it was announced that the Cardinals would play a home game at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City during the 2020 season, but due to the Coronavirus pandemic, the NFL announced in May that all games this year would be played in the United States.

The Cardinals have a long history with international games and have participated in many global "firsts" for the league:

- The franchise played in the first NFL regular season game held outside the United States when they defeated the San Francisco 49ers 31-14 at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City on October 2, 2005.
- The team also played the first NFL game outside of North America on August 16, 1976 against the San Diego Chargers in Tokyo's Korakuen Stadium. The Cardinals won, 20-10.
- The first American football contest played on British soil was a tilt between the Cardinals and Minnesota Vikings in London's Wembley Stadium on August 6, 1983.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Pro Bowler Chandler Jones leads the NFL with 60.0 sacks since coming to the Cardinals in 2016. While dominating on the field, he has also been active in the Arizona community.

In March, Jones donated more than 150,000 meals to food banks in both Arizona and his hometown of Endicott, NY to assist families affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. He provided meals to St. Mary's Food Bank and Midwest Food Bank of Arizona while also donating to Mother Teresa's Cupboard through the Catholic Charities of Broome County in New York.

"These are really tough times and it is important for me to do my part and help out both here in Arizona and back at home in New York," he said at the time. "There are a lot of people in need and everything we can do as a community makes a difference."

In December of 2018, Jones also donated $40,000 to Phoenix Children's Hospital after pledging $20,000 to PCH for every sack he collected in the Cardinals final two games of the season. He recorded one in the team's season finale at Seattle but opted to double the donation to $40,000.

During the 2019 offseason, he joined representatives from the Cardinals and the Be Kind Crew to participate in an anti-bullying assembly in Phoenix. Jones passed along a message about kindness and what to do instead of what not to do when it comes to bullying.

Prior to the 2019 season, he hosted his second football camp for 75 kids at the Dignity Health Cardinals Training Center. The kids had the opportunity to learn proper technique and training tips while also taking part in a Q&A with Jones. He also took part in teammate Corey Peters' lineman challenge camp that same offseason.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Arizona native and Desert Vista H.S. product Devon Kennard joined the Cardinals during the 2020 offseason to continue his NFL career in his hometown of Phoenix. Since entering the league with the Giants as a fifth-round pick in 2014, he has been distinguished for both his on-field performance and community service.

To recognize his playing excellence and charitable efforts, Kennard was selected as Detroit's 2019 Walter Payton NFL Man of The Year. As a nominee, Kennard received a $50,000 donation in his name to the charity of his choice and two Super Bowl tickets for a community recipient of his choice.

In May, as part of the Cardinals Carryout campaign to support local restaurants during the COVID-19 pandemic, Kennard gave back to frontline workers by personally delivering meals to four fire departments in the Valley.

Kennard spent the majority of the 2019 offseason in Phoenix, where he volunteered at the first-annual "Hogs and Dawgs" Lineman Academy. The camp provided high school student athletes from Arizona the opportunity to receive offensive and defensive line coaching from Kennard and his father, Derek Kennard Sr., who played five seasons (1986-90) for the Cardinals.

During his time in Detroit, Kennard worked closely with the Midnight Golf Program, which helps underserved youth transition from high school to college and professional careers through mentorship and skill building. In 2019, he established the Devon Kennard Scholarship Fund to help students involved with the Midnight Golf Program advance their education.

In 2019, Kennard was elected as a representative of the Lions Fuel Up To Play 60 program, and as part of the campaign, he participated in several youth camps to help educate kids on the importance of maintaining healthy eating habits and establishing a positive lifestyle.

Following the 2018 season, Kennard was instrumental in launching Detroit Lions Inspire Change, the team's player-driven social justice initiative. Along with his teammates, Kennard participated in Talk It Up Thursday, an event hosted by the Detroit Police Department and the Men of Courage organization that featured a panel of Lions players and male students to discuss social resiliency and how to succeed.

During the 2017 offseason, Kennard started his first #ReadingWithDK challenge to motivate kids to pick up a book throughout their summer break. He selected a book – starting with To Kill A Mockingbird and The Alchemist – and engaged children with discussion and questions on his social media accounts. All who participated in the #ReadingWithDK challenge were entered to win autographed gear from Kennard.

He also partnered with Arizona PBS for an eight-part series and nationwide campaign in which Kennard – among other notable figures – encourage people to read by describing books that have inspired and shaped them.

While with the Giants, Kennard was an active volunteer and generous donor for New City Kids, an after-school program for low-income youth who get the chance to explore academics and music in a creative environment. Kennard helped mentor children through the challenges of urban life while developing their skills in the classroom and extracurricular talents. In 2017, he also teamed up with We Are DREAM and visited local New York schools to help kids recognize their potential and realize their dreams.

While attending the University of Southern California, Kennard began his philanthropic efforts by volunteering to feed the homeless and visiting cancer patients at the children's hospital in LA. In 2012, Kennard and 12 of his USC teammates traveled to Haiti to build home for families devastated by earthquakes.

A skilled public speaker, Kennard has also delivered keynote addresses at several events on a variety of topics including athletics, work ethic, networking, faith and education.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Arizona native Christian Kirk was drafted by the Cardinals in 2018 and got the opportunity to start his NFL career in his hometown. While excelling on the field, he has made sure give back to the community in which he was raised.

As a rookie, he created the "Kicks from Kirk" program which offered fans the opportunity to win a free pair of Adidas shoes each week courtesy of Kirk by submitting a write up of someone who has significantly impacted their lives. Kirk selected a winner each week as part of the contest.

He joined Cardinals teammates in 2018 to visit Luke Air Force base as part of the NFL's Salute to Service month. The group from the Cardinals got an up-close look at F-35's and F-16's from the 61st Fight Squadron and visited various personnel stationed on the base.

In the 2019 offseason, he teamed with the Stabler Foundation to provide backpacks for the Sunshine Pack Drive to benefit the Arizona Children's Cancer Foundation. Kirk donated 400 backpacks and took part in an event to help collect arts and crafts, books, journals, games, headphones and other small goods to include in the packs for children. This past season, Kirk joined fellow Saguro alumni and current Cardinals teammates Byron Murphy and D.J. Foster to go back to their high school for a surprise pep rally as part of the NFL 100 "Fantennial" celebration. Also as part of the NFL 100 celebration, Kirk traveled to Texas in January to surprise Cardinals fan Devin Manigo with the news that he would receive two Super Bowl tickets and also get the opportunity to appear in a commercial as part of the league's "Next 100" contest.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Andy Lee and his wife, Rachel, tragically lost their infant daughter, Madelyn, just eight days after she was born in 2015, and while Madelyn's life was brief, her impact has been immense.

To honor their daughter's memory, the Lee's established Madelyn's Fund, a non-profit designed to support NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit) families through the process, including those who experience the trauma of losing a child. The average NICU daily cost is $3,500 per infant, so for many, the grief is compounded by financial stress.

Each year, Madelyn's fund hosts a celebrity golf tournament in Charlotte and a Pink Bow Gala to raise money for NICU patients and their families. Lee also has worn custom-designed cleats in support of Madelyn's Fund as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign.

Since joining the team in 2017, Andy has also been active in the Phoenix community. Last year, along with the Cardinals Women's Club, front office personnel and several teammates, Lee helped deliver stuffed toy dogs to children in the pediatric units throughout Phoenix Children's Hospital as part of the team's annual "Paw Express" event to help spread holiday cheer.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since defensive lineman Corey Peters signed with the Cardinals as a free agent in 2015, he has displayed his commitment to the Arizona community through his various charitable appearances.

His foundation, the Peters Education Enrichment Project (PEEP), was established in 2012 and is centered around the South Pointe school system. Peters provides lunch and hosts a bi-weekly book club at South Pointe High School and this past November he took part in South Pointe Elementary School's Turkey Trot in partnership with St. Vincent de Paul.

Peters spoke with students at the school and followed that up by participating in a day of field activities. Along with St. Vincent de Paul of Arizona, Peters provided 24 families with a care package of food and hygiene products. He also has worn custom-designed cleats in support of PEEP as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign.

During COVID-19, Peters launched a weekly virtual book club, The Corey Peters Playbook, which provided an educational outlet for all Arizona high school students. He joined the students over Zoom and had meaningful discussions about a variety of books. Peters also became an ambassador for Feed the Children, a non-profit organization whose mission is to end childhood hunger. He helped raise awareness on Giving Tuesday and provided PSA support to grow the cause and help families in need.

At Super Bowl LIV in Miami, Peters teamed up with the Kids In Need Foundation, a non-profit organization that ensures every child is prepared to learn and succeed in the classroom by providing free school supplies. He helped deliver backpacks and school supplies to Fisher Elementary School in the Miami-Dade County Public School district.

In 2018, the Corey Peters "Lineman Challenge" was established. Each summer, Peters holds a football skills camp specializing in developing offensive and defensive lineman at the high school level.

Along with his fellow defensive linemen, Peters was a part of a holiday shopping event presented by Desert Financial for 50 kids and their families at Walmart last December. Each child received a $200 gift card to shop for themselves and family.

In the 2019 offseason, Peters and team mascot Big Red participated in a Gatorade Jr. Training Camp in Gilbert for 150 special needs students. On two different occasions, he joined Nicole Bidwill to take part in the team's annual "Pink Game" to support Breast Cancer Awareness.

In 2018, the group from the Cardinals recognized Breast Cancer survivors at the Mesa High School game against Westwood High School in October. In 2016, Peters visited Greenway High School for the Cardinals annual "Pink Game" and participated in a special halftime presentation to honor breast cancer survivors.

Peters was selected as the Cardinals 2018 nominee for the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award. Established in 2014 in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr., the annual award recognizes players who demonstrate qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents and integrity in competition.

In 2017, Peters joined a number of teammates and a group from the Cardinals Women's Club to visit Phoenix Children's Hospital for a birthday party in the Kids Zone. Each month, the Kids Zone at PCH holds a party for all patients who have a birthday in that month. The Arizona Cardinals Women's Club sponsored the event, which featured games with the patients as well as pizza and cake.

Peters also hosted 20 families from the Arizona Cardinals Preparatory Academy for a Holiday Kids Camp. Peters and his teammates adopted the students and families at the Preparatory Academy so they could have a happy holiday season. In addition to the Kids Camp, the students got presents from the Cardinals and each family received a free mattress donated by Brooklyn Bedding.

During the holiday season, Peters and Cardinals teammates visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas Party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children by providing family like homes, opportunities and education through college.

In the 2017 offseason, Peters was part of a group of Cardinals players that joined Arizona Governor Doug Ducey to participate in the annual "Read Across America" program at the Phoenix Salvation Army KROC Center. The event took place on Dr. Seuss' birthday (March 2) and helps motivate children to read and focuses the country's attention on the importance of reading. He was back at the KROC Center and partnered with teammates for the "Team Smile" event to provide 300 kids free dental care while participating in an Easter Egg hunt.

In 2016, he was part of a group from the Cardinals that took part in a field ribbon cutting ceremony at Thew Elementary School in Tempe, AZ to create a lighted football field for the school's physical education program and for the city.

Peters and his Cardinals teammates also hosted the team's annual "Pro vs. G.I. Joe" program where Cardinals players competed in video games with Arizona soldiers from the Wounded Warrior Regiment who are based in Iraq and Kuwait as part of a program set up through the USO.

Being selected as the Cardinals "Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year" helps recognize a player's off-the-field community service as well as his playing excellence. As part of the award in 2017, Peterson received a $50,000 donation to the Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success and an additional $50,000 donation in his name to expand Arizona's United Way Character Playbook program. He also received two Super Bowl LII tickets to give to a community hero. In 2015, the NFL provided $5,000 to Peterson's foundation and Nationwide offered an additional $10,000 for receiving the honor.

Peterson was also selected as the Cardinals 2017 nominee for the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award. Established in 2014 in honor of the late founding owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers and Pro Football Hall of Famer Art Rooney, Sr., the annual award recognizes players who demonstrate qualities of on-field sportsmanship, including fair play, respect for the game and opponents and integrity in competition.

Established in 2013, the Patrick Peterson Foundation for Success aims to provide low-income and inner-city youth with opportunities and resources to reach their full potential. The foundation hopes to implement an excellent balance for community development through a variety of programs, events and charitable initiatives held throughout the year. The foundation's signature program is "Patrick's Corner" – a literacy program that places libraries in schools and inner-city community center. All 14 Patrick's Corners are furnished with bookshelves, beanbag chairs, a reading module, audio library and a stereo listening center, providing at-risk students with access to 1,200 age-appropriate books. Each corner serves as a dedicated area where students and their families can read, learn and explore together.

In collaboration with "Patrick's Corner," Peterson launched the "Pick Up a Book" initiative within the Phoenix community which is designed to bring families, schools and communities together to support children's literacy development.

The program works to:

- Help families foster the skills, attitudes and behaviors that support children's literacy development
- Help schools engage families through fun, literacy-based events
- Better prepare children for reading and learning
- Support schools with their family engagement goals

In September of 2017, Peterson expanded upon the foundation's signature program through a community partnership with Arizona non-profit, Furnishing Dignity. Through the partnership, mini Patrick's Corners have been implemented into the homes of families who need furnishings and other essential household items. In May of 2017, Peterson and his wife, Antonique, visited Haiti as guests of Mission of Hope. They visited schools, helped children read and write, and played soccer and kickball. Antonique, who is a doctor, assisted at medical centers. The pair also collected fresh water from local spring wells for villages without clean water.

Last December, Peterson hosted his seventh annual "Shop with a Jock" event at Walmart. Peterson, with the help of Santa and his teammates, hosts the holiday event each year for 50 low-income and at-risk inner-city families and provides the children with a unique holiday shopping experience. He has also hosted his "Show and Tell" car show in Mesa in the offseason to benefit his foundation.

Another yearly event is the annual Patrick Peterson "Celebrity Golf Tournament." The two-day event includes a red-carpet VIP welcome party and a golf tournament at Superstition Mountain Golf and Country Club in Gold Canyon. Peterson has also hosted "Celebrity Golf Challenge" events at Topgolf in Arizona to benefit his foundation and his "Celebs and Steaks" fundraising dinner featuring celebrities as waiters.

His commitment to helping people isn't exclusive to Arizona. When devastating floods ravaged Baton Rouge, LA in 2016, Peterson and his former LSU and Cardinals teammate Tyrann Mathieu stepped up to help. They joined forces and purchased school supplies and clothing for 700 children, including 100 kids from the Boys & Girls Club of Baton Rouge. In addition, Peterson helped raise more than $40,000 for the Baton Rouge Area Foundation through a fantasy football-based charity tournament with the winners getting the opportunity to attend the LSU-Alabama game as Peterson's guests. Peterson plans to expand the Patrick's Corner initiative to his home state of Florida in the future.

In addition to his foundation work, Peterson is also very active at Cardinals team community events. He has visited Boys Hope Girls Hope for the team's annual Christmas party. Boys Hope Girls Hope helps academically capable and motivated children-in-need to meet their full potential by providing value-centered, family-like homes, opportunities and education through college. He also made a special trip to Dignity Health Chandler Regional Medical Center in 2017 to visit families in the birth center, congratulate new parents and deliver Cardinals teddy bears.

In 2016, he joined Cardinals teammates for the annual "Light the House" party to help spread holiday cheer at the Phoenix Ronald McDonald House. The group provided the families at the house with dinner, drinks and dessert while also passing out stockings to the children. Peterson has also participated in the team's "Paw Express" event at Phoenix Children's Hospital during the holiday season. The players delivered stuffed toy dogs to children in the pediatric throughout the hospital. In November of 2018, Peterson and the Cardinals took part at Phoenix Children Hospital's annual Giving Tuesday fundraiser, helping to raise over $200,000 for the hospital.

As part of Breast Cancer Awareness Month in 2014, Peterson visited Red Mountain High School in Mesa for a special pregame presentation for 10 breast cancer survivors prior to a high school football game against Desert Mountain. He joined Nicole Bidwill and presented each survivor with a commemorative football while the Cardinals provided both teams with pink gloves, wrist bands, socks and shoelaces. This past Thanksgiving, Peterson hosted his third annual "Thanksgiving Giveaway" where he partnered with the United Food Bank of Arizona to provide Thanksgiving meals to 221 Arizona families in need. He also previously took part at the team's "Feed the Hungry" program at the Phoenix Rescue Mission during Thanksgiving. Peterson joined team President Michael Bidwill and Cardinals teammates and served Thanksgiving dinner for the less fortunate.

In January of 2015, Peterson joined Bidwill and Cardinals teammates at the NFL's Super Bowl Legacy Grant event leading up to Super Bowl XLIX in Arizona by participating at a press conference that was followed up by a Heads Up Football Clinic at ASU Preparatory Academy. In the spring of 2013, Peterson joined Cardinals teammates, Bidwill, former Cardinals head coach Bruce Arians and General Manager Steve Keim and took part in a tweetup hosted by NBC's Peter King at Tom's Tavern the night before Pat's Run to benefit the Tillman Foundation.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Since entering the league with the Giants in the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, offensive lineman Justin Pugh has used his platform to become a positive influence in the community, and he has stayed busy in the Arizona community since coming to town in 2018.

This past offseason, in the middle of the COVID-19 crisis, Pugh served as an ambassador for an initiative involving State Farm and the Arizona Cardinals donating one million meals spread among five local food banks in the Valley:

- St. Mary's Food Bank
- St. Vincent DePaul
- United Food Bank
- Phoenix Rescue Mission
- Midwest Food Bank

As the brother of an active duty United State Air Force servicemember, supporting the military and first responders has always been close to Pugh's heart. In 2018, he joined Cardinals teammates to visit Luke Air Force base as part of the NFL's Salute to Service month in November. The group from the Cardinals got an up-close look at F-35's and F-16's from the 61st Fight Squadron and visited various personnel stationed on the base.

As part of the NFL's "My Cause, My Cleats" campaign the past four years, he has partnered with Merging Vets and Players, a program that was designed to address the challenge of transitioning from the battlefield to home by creating an environment where veterans and athletes can share their strength and experience.

CARDINALS IN THE COMMUNITY

Last December, Pugh hosted his second annual holiday party for 100 local youth for a private, advance screening of Spies in Disguise. The group of kids came from Heart for the City AZ, a Phoenix-based nonprofit that works with underprivileged youth to provide wholistic academic, physical, mental and professional programming. In addition to the screening, Pugh provided concessions and surprised the kids with holiday gifts.

During the 2017 NFL Draft, Pugh visited Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst in New Jersey to thank members of the military for their service, host a youth football event for their kids and announce the Giants fifth-round pick on television with his brother Michael, who was stationed at the base.

Pugh has also participated in a Pro vs. GI Joe event where players competed in video games against military veterans through the Wounded Warrior Project which works to provide services and programs for wounded service members. On the 15th anniversary of 9/11, Pugh honored first responders by joining firefighters from Engine 34 Ladder 21 for a BBQ dinner at their firehouse in Hell's Kitchen.

Beyond the causes, campaigns and charitable organizations with which Pugh is associated, he hasn't missed the opportunity to impact lives through simple kindness.

While living in Jersey City, he befriended his elderly neighbor, Bill, who had lost his wife, suffered a back injury and fallen behind on his rent. The two developed a special bond, and Pugh's financial assistance prevented Bill from being evicted from his home of more than 30 years. Despite moving to Arizona, Pugh continues to speak with Bill and his son regularly.

Since 2015 he has hosted the annual Pugh Crew Summer Kickoff, a free football camp in his hometown of Bucks County, PA. The camp allows 250 local boys and girls the opportunity to receive instruction from Pugh, other NFL and college players and professional coaches while also developing team-building skills, learning how to set goals and building confidence.

During his time in New York, Pugh served as the national spokesperson for Shriners Hospitals for Children and their Game Day for LOVE campaign which supports the life-saving and life-changing care to kids in need of specialized medical care. As part of the campaign, Pugh hosted a viewing party, featuring a raffle and silent auction, in New York City when his alma mater, Syracuse, took on Clemson in 2014.

In Week 17 the 2014 season, Pugh hosted three Shriners patients at the Giants home game against the Eagles. The patients and their families were treated to a VIP tour of the stadium and received pregame field passes. Pugh also supported Shriners on the gameshow "Who Wants to be a Millionaire" during their charity week in 2015 and won $10,000 for the organization, in addition to a $10,000 check from Pugh directly.

Since entering the league in 2013, Pugh has hosted and supported many other charitable causes and events including the following:

- Play 60 clinic at the NFL Experience during Super Bowl LI
- Co-host for the 2017 NBC4 and Telemundo Health and Fitness Expo Presented by Quest Diagnostics at MetLife Stadium
- Attended the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund's Champions for Children Gala which raises money to support the families of children with cancer
- Attended The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia's annual fundraising gala
